ANOTHER NEGRO MAN IS LYNCHED.

Lige Strickland Swung up to a Limb by a Mob Near Palmetto.

ANOTHER REPORTED LYNCHED THERE.

Two Others, It Is Said, Will Be Lynched if Caught by the Infuriated Mob.

PEOPLE THERE IN A FRENZIED STATE.

Excitement Prevails Over the District and People Stirred to Take Drastic Measures to Stop Further Lynchings and Murders.

Palmetto, Ga., April 24.—The body of Lige Strickland, the negro implicated by Sam Hose in the killing of Alfred Cranford, was found swinging to the limb of a tree about one mile from town early this morning. His ears and fingers had been cut off and to his body had been pinned a placard bearing these words: "We must protect our southern women." Strickland was a negro minister, 60 years of age. Sam Hose, just as the torch was about to be applied to the pile of wood under him near New-man Sunday, admitted killing Alfred Cranford, but said Strickland had given him $12 to do the deed.

The confession of Hose caused great excitement and a crowd of men left for the home of Major Thomas, where Strickland worked, and at dusk took the negro from the place and brought him into town. Major Thomas made a speech to the mob while they were on his farm urging them not to take the negro, saying he believed the fellow innocent. The men would not listen to him, however, and took Strickland with them.

He was brought into town and taken to a public square where an impromptu trial was held. Everybody who knew Strickland was called upon to give testimony as to his character. Several negroes employed by Colonel Thomas said the negro was a law-abiding citizen and not implicated in the Cranford affair. Other people living near the Thomas place gave Strickland a bad name. There were several people in the crowd who favored letting the law take its course and suggested court adjourn to another place one mile from town, where several people lived who know Strickland. This met with approval and the "court" moved out into the woods, one mile from town.

Here he was strung up two or three times in an effort to get a confession from him, but each time he refused to say he had any connection with Hose's crime, and denied that he paid Hose to murder Cranford. The crowd seemed to be evenly divided regarding the guilt or innocence of the negro, and after the speechmaking which continued until daylight, it was decided to take the peacher to jail at Fairburn. This was the last time the negro was seen alive.

A couple of farmers coming into town later reported finding the body of Strickland hanging from a limb of a tree shockingly mutilated. The city marshal summoned two deputies and entering a spring wagon drove to the scene. The body of Strickland was secured and brought here. An inquest will be held. It is understood that Albert Sewell, a negro living three miles out, has been taken in charge by another mob and will be lynched.

Sewell is the negro who a few days ago said the death of all negroes should be avenged.

Another Reported Lynched.

Atlanta, April 24.—A telephone message from Palmetto says the mob which lynched Strickland captured Albert Sewell, the negro who expressed himself in effect that the death of every negro should be avenged, and put him to death. The mob is said to be still on the hunt for negroes and that probably two more will be lynched before the work will have been finished.

THE PEOPLE STIRRED.

Georgia Citizens Talking of Best Methods of Protecting Women.

Atlanta, April 24.—No crime in recent years such as the burning of Palmetto by incendiaries, the lynching a month later of four negroes by the whites in retaliation for the destruction of Palmetto, followed 10 days ago by the murder of Alfred Cranford and the ravishing of his wife in the same locality, for which the negro, Sam Hose, was burned at the stake Sunday, have so stirred the people of Georgia and the south as these series of events which it believed to have reached a culmination. The discussion of crimes and a remedy for lawlessness has reached all circles, and the question of protection for white women in sparsely settled farming districts, is the topic of the day. The Atlanta Constitution devotes a page to the collection of opinions on "How proper protection can be afforded to the women in the country." Of the matter Gov. Chandler has this to say:

"The question of protection for women and homes in the country is one of deep importance and which weighs upon my heart. I think the wisest plan for the protection to be for the legislature to take up the matter, provide sufficient state militia and funds to be expended for the patrol of the country districts."

Feeling Against Turner.

Macon, April 24.—The Telegraph publishes the following over the signature of one of its reporters:

"Just at this time it would hardly be safe for Bishop Turner to come to this section of the state for feeling runs high against him. On the night of the Cranford murder, Turner spoke at Sharpsburg, a short distance from the scene of the crime. It is said his utterances were particularly bitter in reference to the action of Palmetto citizens in killing four negroes recently. He advised the negroes to stand together. The congregation's mind was inflamed and the next day the negroes assisted Hose in making his escape. Matters are not yet settled yet in this county between the races. It is learned that the threats made by the negroes that they will have revenge is causing much feeling among coolheaded citizens, fearing results."

TWO WOMEN KILLED.

Their Bodies Mutilated in a Horrible Manner Near a Mine.

Murphysboro, Ills., April 24.—The bodies of two women who were murdered while they slept have been found in the house of E. M. Davie, a miner residing one mile from Carver mine No. 6. The bodies were mutilated and blood-stained. The victims are Mrs. Mary E. Davie and Miss Millstead, who resided with the family.

Sunday afternoon Mr. Davie left for Carverville, Ills. His wife and Miss Millstead accompanied him to the train. That was the last time they were seen alive. The crime was evidently committed during the night while the women were asleep, for they were clad in their night clothes. The condition of the room indicated that it had been looted. Both a revolver and a club were used in the double murder. Mrs. Millstead was shot in the right temple and her head was also crushed. Mrs. Davie's skull was crushed in a horrible manner. Many rumors are afloat, but as yet there have been no arrests. Mr. Davie has resided here since last June working in the mine.

An inquest on the bodies of the murdered women will be held.

ANOTHER NEW SENATOR.

Governor of California Says He Will Appoint Dan Burns from That State.

San Francisco, April 24.—The San Francisco Examiner says that Governor Gage was asked what he thought of the appointment of M. S. Quay as senator of Pennsylvania by Governor Stone of that state.

"I don't know Quay and I don't know Stone," he said, "but if your question has anything to do with the senatorship from California, all I have to say is I have already appointed Dan Burns as United States senator to succeed Stephen M. White, his commission has not yet been out."

The governor would not say when the commission to Colonel Burns would be issued. In fact he refused to discuss the right of Governor Stone to appoint Quay senator. He left the impression, however, that if Quay is seated by the senate he will at once issue a commission to D. M. Burns.

Another Sensational Arrest.

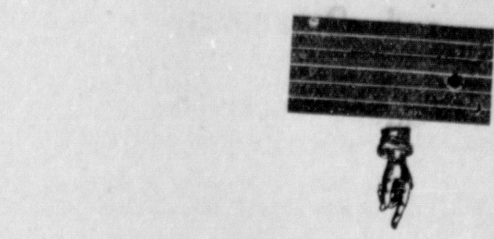

Philadelphia, April 24.—The biggest sensation thus far in the now famous Jacobs-Kendigh-Taylor-Bredell counterfeiting case, occurred here when former United States District Attorney Ellery P. Ingham was placed under arrest. He is charged, it is said, with attempted bribery. The arrest was made at Ingham's office by Chief Wilkie of the secret service. Ingham's law partner and ex-Assistant United States District Attorney Harvey K. Newitt, was arrested last week on the same charge.

Captain Wilde Makes Protest.

Washington, April 24.—Captain G. F. Wilde, of the United States cruiser Boston, has protested against the promotion of Colonel Miller to brigadier generalship as a reward for the capture of Hilo. It appears this capture was effected by naval forces under the command of Captain Wilde and that not until after the capture had been effected was turned over to Colonel Miller, who up to that time had nothing to do with the capture. This action is indorsed by Admiral Dewey.

The Greenville Herald pertinently remarks that trusts do not exist where there is no protective tariff, and without a protective tariff trust are impossible.

The dollar dinner and the ten dollar dinner will figure extensively in the campaign for the democratic presidential nomination. The chances are more than ten to one in favor of the dollar diners, however.

The Eagle has received the first number of the Oakwoods Sun, issued on San Jacinto day by Mr. W. F. Bookman. The Sun is a five column octavo, of neat mechanical appearance and full of crisp, readable local and general news. The people of Oakwoods and Leon county should accord the paper hearty support. It has the best wishes of the Eagle.

"The milk trust reaches the infant as he enters the world, the ice trust keeps him cool in the summer and the coal trust keeps him warm in the winter, while the coffin trusts wait to receive him when life's fitful dream is over. The people are beginning to see what the principle of monopoly means, and yet the principle of monopoly, so plainly illustrated by the industrial trusts, does not differ at all from the principle of monopoly which underlies both the gold standard and the paper money trust."—Bryan at the Jeffersonian banquet.

A Special Sermon.

Rev. Dr. Bowers preached a special sermon at St. Andrews Episcopal church Sunday, having formally invited the mayor and other city officials to hear him. Those of the city officers in attendance were Mayor Cliff A. Adams, Aldermen R. G. Tabor, W. S. Howell, Walter Wiprecht, City Secretary H. G. Rhodes and City Marshal T. P. Boyett.

After the usual service Dr. Bowers announced his text from the 137th Psalm, fifth verse: "If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning." The sermon dealt with the early history of the people of God and their desire to possess a city; their subsequent joy in Jerusalem and their loyalty to that great city even when driven away in exile, beautifully illustrated by their turning their faces towards that city to pray and their pilgrimages, and yet more beautifully by the vision of St. John who saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem. The lesson drawn from the subject was given local application in an admonition of the people for loyalty to the city in which they live, that they may seek by word and deed its continued upbuilding.

The speaker declared himself in favor of a public library, public expositions, the observance of national and civic holidays, the preservation of a public park with the cultivation of flowers, the marking of historic points with suitable monuments, etc.

He stated that it was better to prevent mischief by amusing the people and keeping them from it than by inflicting punishment after an act is committed. The influence of Christian men in conducting public affairs was emphasized and the duty of citizenship enlarged upon.

The sermon was well received by the large congregation present.

Will Abrogate Clayton-Bulwer Treaty for Alaskan Outlet.

Washington, April 24.—Although willing to abrogate the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, Great Britain has made it plain to the United States that she expects an equivalent in return for her action.

This equivalent will be exacted during negotiations of the America-Canadian commission, which is to resume its sessions in Washington in August next. It is because of a demand for concessions equal in value to that which will be given to the United States in the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty that the negotiations have not progressed with the promptness at first expected.

It is apparent to the officials that Great Britain proposes to use the proposition to abrogate the treaty to further her own aim in connection with the settlement of the Alaska boundary question. Great Britain is determined to make every effort to secure an outlet for her northwest territory through Alaska, and the United States is not willing to give it to her. It may be therefore, that she will suggest that in return for such an outlet she will surrender all her rights in the Nicaragua canal.

President McKinley and Secretary Hay have determined not to enter any negotiations with either Costa Rica or Nicaragua respecting the Nicaragua canal until the new isthmian canal commission has submitted its report.

The Nicaragua canal commission will report in a short time and the president will then announce the members of the isthmian commission. The new commission will proceed to Panama and then to Nicaragua, and it is the expectation of the president that it will submit its report in time for the consideration early in the next session of congress.

The Horatio's Crew.

San Francisco, April 24.—The barkentine Ruth has arrived here from Guam, Caroline islands, with Captain West and part of the crew of the wrecked whaling bark Horatio, which went ashore on Jan. 27 while trying to enter the south harbor of Kusaie. The Horatio was a total wreck, but no lives were lost and nearly everything of value on board was saved. J. Extrom, a South sea trader, and A. G. Maddern, a collector of natural history specimens, also came on the Ruth. Extrom was recently obliged to remove to Guam from the island of Ruk, as the natives there were extremely quarrelsome. The Ruth's passengers pronounce Guam a land of great promise. They say that the Germans are trying to get possession of Kusaie.

Young Woman Fatally Shot.

Paris, Ills., April 24.—At Christian, Miss Eva Lientz was shot, probably fatally, as she was returning home from an entertainment with a gentleman friend. They were approached from behind by two men. One of them drew a revolver and fired at the girl. The bullet entered below the right shoulder blade and passed entirely through the body. Milton Daily, aged 18, is under arrest for the shooting, being placed in jail here. Warrants have also been issued for George Frinke, who has not yet been apprehended. There is no known motive for the crime.

Unknown Workman Killed.

Hutto, Tex., April 24.—An unknown workman was killed two miles east of Hutto by a westbound engine. The man was lying on the side of the track, presumably with his head on a tie, and was struck on the head as the engine passed. The remains were brought here by Justice Parsons.

A POSITIVE DECLARATION.

WHAT you want, expect and pay for, you ought to have. When you buy "all wool" and it proves half cotton, it naturally sets you to thinking. When "half price" bargains prove to be high priced ones it causes more suspicion. We want the store to be like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion." That's why all wool means all wool and a bargain is a bargain here.

Think of this when you want a suit. You will get an honest suit here, one with that permanency of the fit which comes from correct tailoring, combined with perfectly woven clothes of dependable woollens, that shape holding quality which stays with the suit till it's worn out.

We intend making this the most momentous season in the history of our store. If goods and prices are reliable indications, the accomplishment of our object is already assured.

Fish That Never Sleep.

There are several species of fish, reptiles and insects which never sleep during their stay in the world. Among fish it is now positively known that pike, salmon and goldfish never sleep at all. Also that there are several others of the fish family that never sleep more than a few minutes during a month. There are dozens of species of flies which never indulge in slumber, and from three to five species of serpents which the naturalists have never yet been able to catch napping.

Latest Fad.

You must do away with all your inanimate mascots and have live ones. The pig is the latest fad for the New York girls, several of whom have tiny pigs, with ribbon tied about their necks, following them about the house, or on the streets, as they walk asserts Demorest's Magazine. Besides pigs, rabbits, goats, white mice, alligators and monkeys are affected by some young women.

DISASTROUS BATTLE.

Filipinos Push Back Americans, But Americans Finally Win.

Manila, April 24.—Four men of the Nebraska regiment, including Capt. Stotsenburg, Lieutenant Seaton and three men of the Fourth cavalry were killed and 44 wounded in an engagement at Quengua. The Filipinos retreated with small loss.

The insurgents had a horseshoe trench about a mile long, encircling a ricefield on the edge of a wood. Captain Bell with 40 cavalrymen encountered a strong outpost. One of the men was killed and five were wounded by a volley. The Americans were carrying their wounded under fire and with great difficulty, being closely pursued, the fog enabling the enemy to creep up to them.

Captain Bell sent for reinforcements to rescue the bodies of the killed cavalrymen and a battalion of the Nebraska regiment under Major Mufford arrived and advanced until checked by volleys from the enemy's trenches.

The Americans lay about 800 yards from the trenches, behind rice furrows under fire for two hours.

Several men were sunstruck, one dying from the effects of the heat as they lay there waiting for the artillery to come up.

Finally the second battalion arrived and then Colonel Stotsenburg, who had spent the night with his father at Manila, came upon the field. The men immediately recognized him and raised a cheer.

Colonel Stotsenburg, deciding to charge as the cheapest way out of the difficulty, led the attack at the head of his regiment.

He fell with a bullet in his breast, dying immediately about 200 yards from the breastworks.

The Filipinos stood until the Nebraska troops were right on the trench and then they bolted to the second line of intrenchments, a mile back.

The Nebraska regiment lost two privates and had many wounded, including two lieutenants.

The Iowa regiment had several wounded.

The Utah regiment had one officer and three men wounded.

Thirteen dead Filipinos were found in the trenches. Their loss was comparatively small on account of their safe shelter.

The Americans carried the second trench with small loss and are now holding the town.

Attacking Calumpit.

Manila, April 24.—General MacArthur's division left Malolos apparently intending to besiege Calumpit.

General Hale has crossed Bagbag and has reached a position a quarter of a mile from Calumpit, thus commanding the fort.

The prisoners captured by General Hale's troops say Aguinaldo, General Luna and Filipino staffs are at Calumpit with a great force of Filipino troops.

MR. BAIRD'S FUNERAL.

Ceremonies Were Held at Washington and Remains Sent to Louisiana.

Washington, April 24.—Religious services over the remains of the late Representative Samuel T. Baird of Louisiana, who died here Saturday, were held Sunday afternoon in the parlors of the Riggs House where the deceased resided while in Washington. There were many floral offerings, including a magnificent cross of roses and lilies from the Louisiana delegation in congress and a beautiful Masonic emblem from the state of Louisiana.

Mr. Baird was a native of Louisiana, which state he represented in the house of representatives. He was born May 5, 1861, at Oak Ridge, La., and received his education at home and at Vincennes, Ind. He was temporary chairman of the Democratic State convention in 1895 and was a delegate to the national convention in that year. Mr. Baird was elected to the Fifty-fifth congress from the fifth district, comprising 15 parishes.

The body was placed in a private car which left here at 10:45 last night over the Southern railroad and is scheduled to reach Bastrop, La., the late home of the deceased today, where the body will be interred.

Mr. Baird's young son, Ernest, 4 years old, has been in a serious condition for several weeks suffering from spinal meningitis.

Four Women Whipped.

Middleboro, Ky., April 24.—Whitecappers took Lucindy Davis and her three daughters from their home in Powell's Valley, and, after severely beating them, burned their house. The four women were given 24 hours to leave the county. There were 10 whitecaps. When they came to the house two men fired on them from ambush without results. The fire was returned, and going later to the spot, there was evidence that some one had been shot. The party, however, had fled.

Rev. Pierson Stricken.

Corsicana, Tex., April 24.—The Pierson revival meeting was brought to a sudden and unexpected close Sunday night on account of the serious illness of the evangelist, who was seized with heart failure at his room and for a while it was thought he would die.

NEGRO TIED TO A STAKE AND BURNED.

The Awful Fate of a Murderer at the Hands of a Mob.

BURNING WAS A PUBLIC AFFAIR.

Two Thousand People Witnessed the Cremation and Clamored for Relics of the Dead.

TERRIBLE SCENES TAKE PLACE AT THE STAKE.

The Body of the Victim Partly Dismembered Before the Torch Was Applied—Further Lynching Looked For.

Newman, Ga., April 24.—In the presence of nearly 2000 people who sent aloft yells of defiance and shouts of joy, Sam Hose, the negro, who committed two of the basest acts known to crime, was burned at the stake in a public road one and one-half miles from here Sunday afternoon. Before the torch was applied to the pyre, the negro was deprived of his ears, fingers and other portions of his anatomy. The negro pleaded pitifully for his life while the mutilation was going on, but stood the ordeal of fire with surprising fortitude. Before the body was cut it was cut to pieces, the bones were crushed into small bits and even the tree upon which he met his fate was torn up and disposed of as souvenirs. The negro's heart was cut in several pieces as was also his liver.
Those unable to obtain these ghastly relics, paid their more fortunate possessors extravagant prices for them. Small pieces of bone went for 25 cents and a bit of the liver crisply cooked sold for 10 cents.

As soon as the negro was seen to be dead, there was a tremendous struggle among the crowd which had witnessed his tragic end to secure the souvenirs.
A rush was made for the stake and those near the body were forced against it and had to fight for their freedom.
Knives were quickly produced and the body soon dismembered. One of the men who lifted the can of kerosene to the negro's head is said to be a native of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania. His name is known to those who were within but they refused to divulge it. The mob was composed of citizens of Newman, Griffin, Palmetto and other little towns in the country round about Newman and of all the farmers who had received word that the burning was to take place.

Hon. W. Y. Atkinson, former governor of Georgia, met the mob as he was returning from church and appealed to them to let the law take its course.
In addressing the mob he used these words: "Some of you are known to me and when this affair is finally settled in the courts, you may depend upon it that I will testify against you." A member of the mob was seen to draw a revolver and level it at Governor Atkinson, but his arm was seized and the pistol taken from him. The mob was frantic at the delay and would hear to nothing but burning at the stake.

Hose confessed to killing Cranford, but denied that he had outraged Mrs. Cranford. Before being put to death the negro stated that he had been paid $12 by "Lige" Strickland, a negro preacher at Palmetto, to kill Cranford. A mob is scouring the country for Strickland, who has left his home, and will lynch him if caught.

Sam Hose killed Alfred Cranford, a white farmer near Palmetto and outraged his wife 10 days ago. Since that time business in that part of the state has been suspended, the entire population turning out in an effort to capture Hose. He successfully eluded pursuit until discovered near Macon.

Governor Candler has been asked to send troops here to preserve order for a day or two as it is feared the negroes may wreck vengeance, many threats to that effect having been made.

ATLANTA JAIL GUARDED.

It Is Being Watched to Save Another
Negro from Being Lynched.

Atlanta, April 24.—One special and two regular trains carried nearly 4000 people to Newman to witness the burning of Sam Hose or to visit the scene of the horrible affair. The excursionists returning Sunday night were loaded down with ghastly reminders of the affair in the shape of bones, pieces of flesh and parts of the wood which was placed at the negro's feet.

One of the trains as it passed Fort Mc-Pherson, four miles out of Atlanta, was stoned, presumably by negroes. A number of windows were broken and two passengers were painfully injured.

Governor Candler stated during the evening that he had been advised that a mob of citizens of Fayetteville and Woolsey were coming to Atlanta to take Geo.
W. Kerlin from the jail here and lynch him. Kerlin murdered Miss Pearl Knott near Woolsey several days ago and threw her body into the river. The governor ordered eight companies of the Fifth infantry (state militia) to be in readiness to march to the jail upon order.

THE AMERICAM NAVY GROWING RAPIDLY.

Forty-eight Warships Now Under Construction, Eight of Them First Class Battleships.

Washington, April 24.—The completion within a few months of two of the battleships, the Kearsage and Kentucky, serve to call attention to the remarkable rate at which the American navy is growing at the present time. Except among naval officers who watch this progress, few persons realize that 48 warships are now under construction for the United States, involving expenditures under existing contracts aggregating $33,336,600 for hulls and machinery alone. These vessels, when equipped ready for sea, will have cost over $50,- 000,000.

Eight of them are first-class sea-going battleships, as good as any afloat, without taking into account the superiority of the gunners, machinists and officers to man them. Sixteen are torpedo boat destroyers, averaging 29 knots speed, four are heavy harbor defense monitors, one is a sister cruiser to the New Orleans and eighteen are torpedo boats.

One of the most notable facts about this vast construction undertaking is its distribution, exhibiting the great change that has taken place in the shipbuilding industry since the organization of the new navy, the first four ships were built by a single firm. Today 14 American concerns are building ships for the navy, and of these 13 are scattered along the Atlantic coast from Maine to Virginia, and two are on the Pacific, at Portland and San Francisco.

The sheathed cruiser alone is foreign built. She was bought on the stocks from Brazil when the war with Spain became inevitable, because Brazil would not sell one ship which the United States desired without disposing of others at the same time. The navy department needed the Amazon if for nothing else than to prevent Spain getting her. The Niotheroy at a valuation of $575,000 was made a part of the deal, and after a thorough overhauling has become the useful Buffalo.

The Amazon completed cost $1,429,- 125 and was immediately put to service as the New Orleans, being the only American warship provided with smokeless powder for all batteries. Her sister ship, the Almirante Abreu, was then only a few ribs at the Elswick yards at Newcastle-on-Tyne, but the navy department cheerfully took the contract off the Brazilians' hands at the rate of $1,- 250,000 and by adding $250,000 to that amount soon had a fine cruiser in the Albany recently launched.

GERMANY PROTESTS.

Objects to the Language Used by Captain Coghlan at New York.

Washington, April 24.—The German government has protested against the language used by Captain Coghlan at the Union League club banquet at New York on Friday night. The protest was lodged with Secretary Hay through the German ambassador, Herr Von Holleben. Secretary Hay replied that the language appeared to have been used at a dinner at the club and so could not be regarded as official or a public utterance and the sense of that it would not warrant the state department in acting. However, the navy department is fully competent to take such action as the case would seem to require.
With this statement the ambassador, content for the time at least, will doubtless await a reasonable length of time upon the navy department.

As a result of his allusion to the conduct of the German fleet at Manila during the war with Spain, Captain Joseph B. Coghlan will in all probabilities be relieved of the command of the Raleigh.
Secretary Long will not discuss Captain Coghlan's conduct, but he consented to say that no action would be taken until he had heard from that officer. It is presumed that Captain Coghlan received the letter sent by Secretary Long Saturday and it is expected that a reply will be in the hands of the secretary by tomorrow. Until action is taken in the matter, it is hoped by department officials that Captain Coghlan will not make any further public utterances of a character reflecting upon the conduct of Germany during the war. The department's communication indicates its displeasure that Captain Coghlan should permit himself to make a statement prejudicial to the friendly relations between the United States and a foreign government.

Disapproves Coghlan's Conduct.

Berlin, April 24.—It was announced in a semi-official note that United States secretary of state, Colonel John Hay, had expressed to the German ambasador, Von Holleben, a strong disapproval of the conduct of Captain Joseph B.
Coghlan of the United States cruiser Raleigh.

Mazet Investigations.

New York, April 24.—The Mazet investigating committee has resumed sessions and indications point to an interesting session. Mr. Croker and partner, Peter F. Meyer, were the last witnesses subpoenaed and the list also included Thomas J. Brady, commissioner of buildings and Police Chief Devery.

Levee Breaks.

New Orleans, April 24.—A crevasse is reported on Bayou La Fourche, between Lockport and Raceland. It is said to be 200 feet wide. Some of the finest sugar plantations in southern Louisiana are in this vicinity.

The Most Liberal Policy

EXTANT. EQUALED NOWHERE!

Not Approached by the Contract of any other Company.

On March 8, 1899, the PENN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY made a radical departure. While retaining all of its great variety of plans of life insurance and, for the purposes of securing full information in order to judge of the acceptability of applicants, adhering to its present forms of proposals, it decided upon the issue of any one of its contracts of insurance it would immediately endorse thereon the following:

"This Policy is Absolutely Incontestable from date of issue for any cause except non-payment of premium, anything in this contract to the contrary notwithstanding."

While the Company will scrutinize carefully all applications, yet once agreeing to accept a risk, it is accepted in its entirety, wholly and irrevocably, without provision or condition, except the payment of premium.

The endorsement which it now puts upon its policies is not limited to a special class of insurers or to a few special forms of contract.
All good and acceptable risks are treated alike, thus preserving a proper mutuality. No one is asked to forego his dividends—they may be used in reduction if he desires; no one is put into a special class; no invidious or unjust distinction in the membership is permitted. The contract of life insurance is so broadened and liberalized that it is a simple and inviolable promise to pay at a given date, or upon death, and NOTHING IN LAW OR EQUITY OR CIRCUMSTANCE OR CONDITION CAN POS-SIBLY DEFEAT IT. It is the crystallization of the idea expressed in the few words: "You pay us; we pay you." It is freer from conditions than a bond of the United States, and is as unailing security.

The effect of the above endorsement upon the policies of the Penn Mutual is to make them a world-wide contract, free from all conditions as to residence, occupation, travel, habit of life, and as to manner, time or place of death. It is the ultimate in life insurance, for no contract can possibly go any further than to be an unconditioned promise to pay.

Without any increase in premium, or without any stipulation as to the use of dividends, the policies embrace:

First—Automatic extension—the longest.

Second—Paid up insurance—the largest.

Third—Cash or Loan Values—the most liberal.

Fourth—No conditions as to residence, occupation, suicide, dueling, violation of law or military or naval service.

Fifth—While absolutely incontestable for any cause, except non-payment of premium, they provide for immediate payment upon receipt and approval of proofs of death; for reinstatement in case of lapse at any time; premiums are accepted within thirty days of the date due, if the insured is in good health; notes are accepted in settlement; every possible consideration is shown the insured.

Sixth—While the policy itself is the complete contract, a copy of the application is furnished for the information of the insured.

Nothing has heretofore been done in life insurance which will command such world-wide attention and instant approval. It shows that the PENN MUTUAL has reached the goal toward which others are sauntering, and far in advance of all its competitors.
